

Constraints and opportunities

your say
Inner West

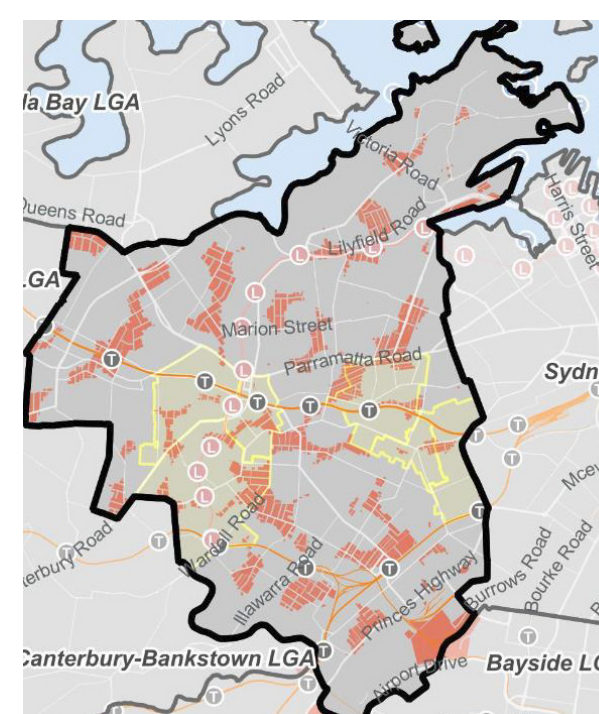

Areas that are less suitable for building new housing are constrained by flooding, aircraft noise, heritage conservation, non-residential (reserved for employment lands), further from transport and open space.

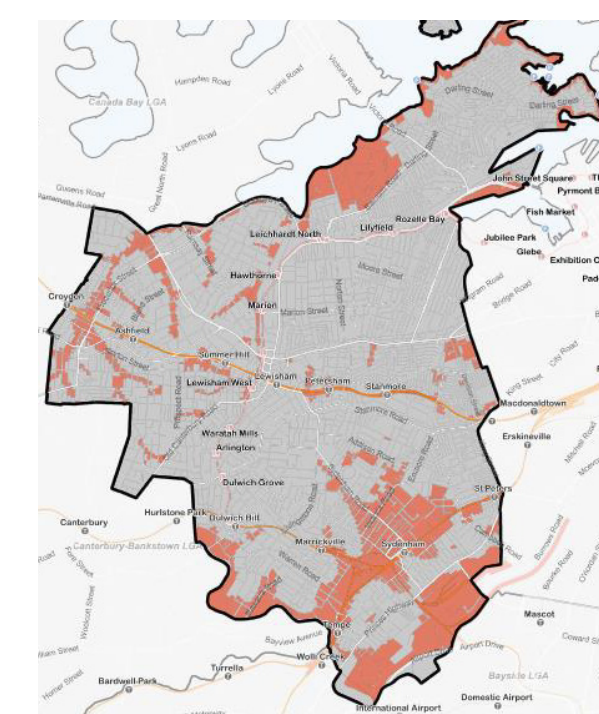

Aircraft noise

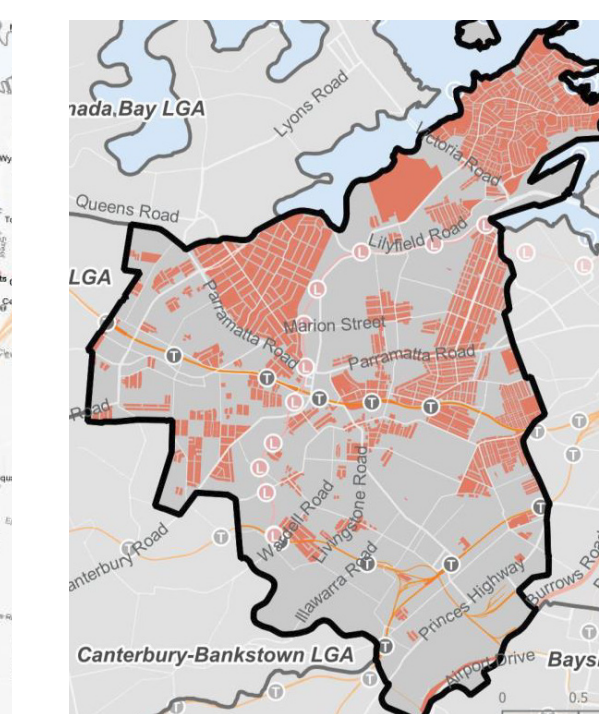

Transport accessibility

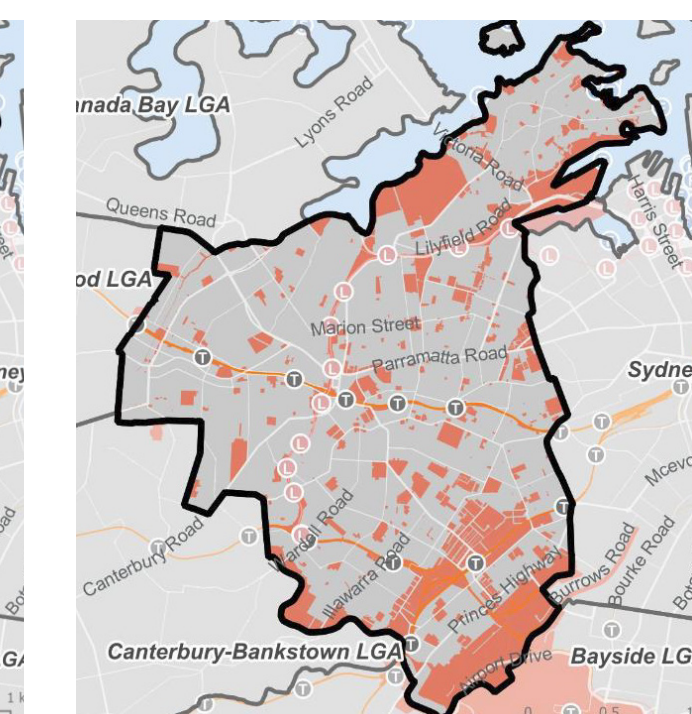

Open space accessibility

Flood impacted land

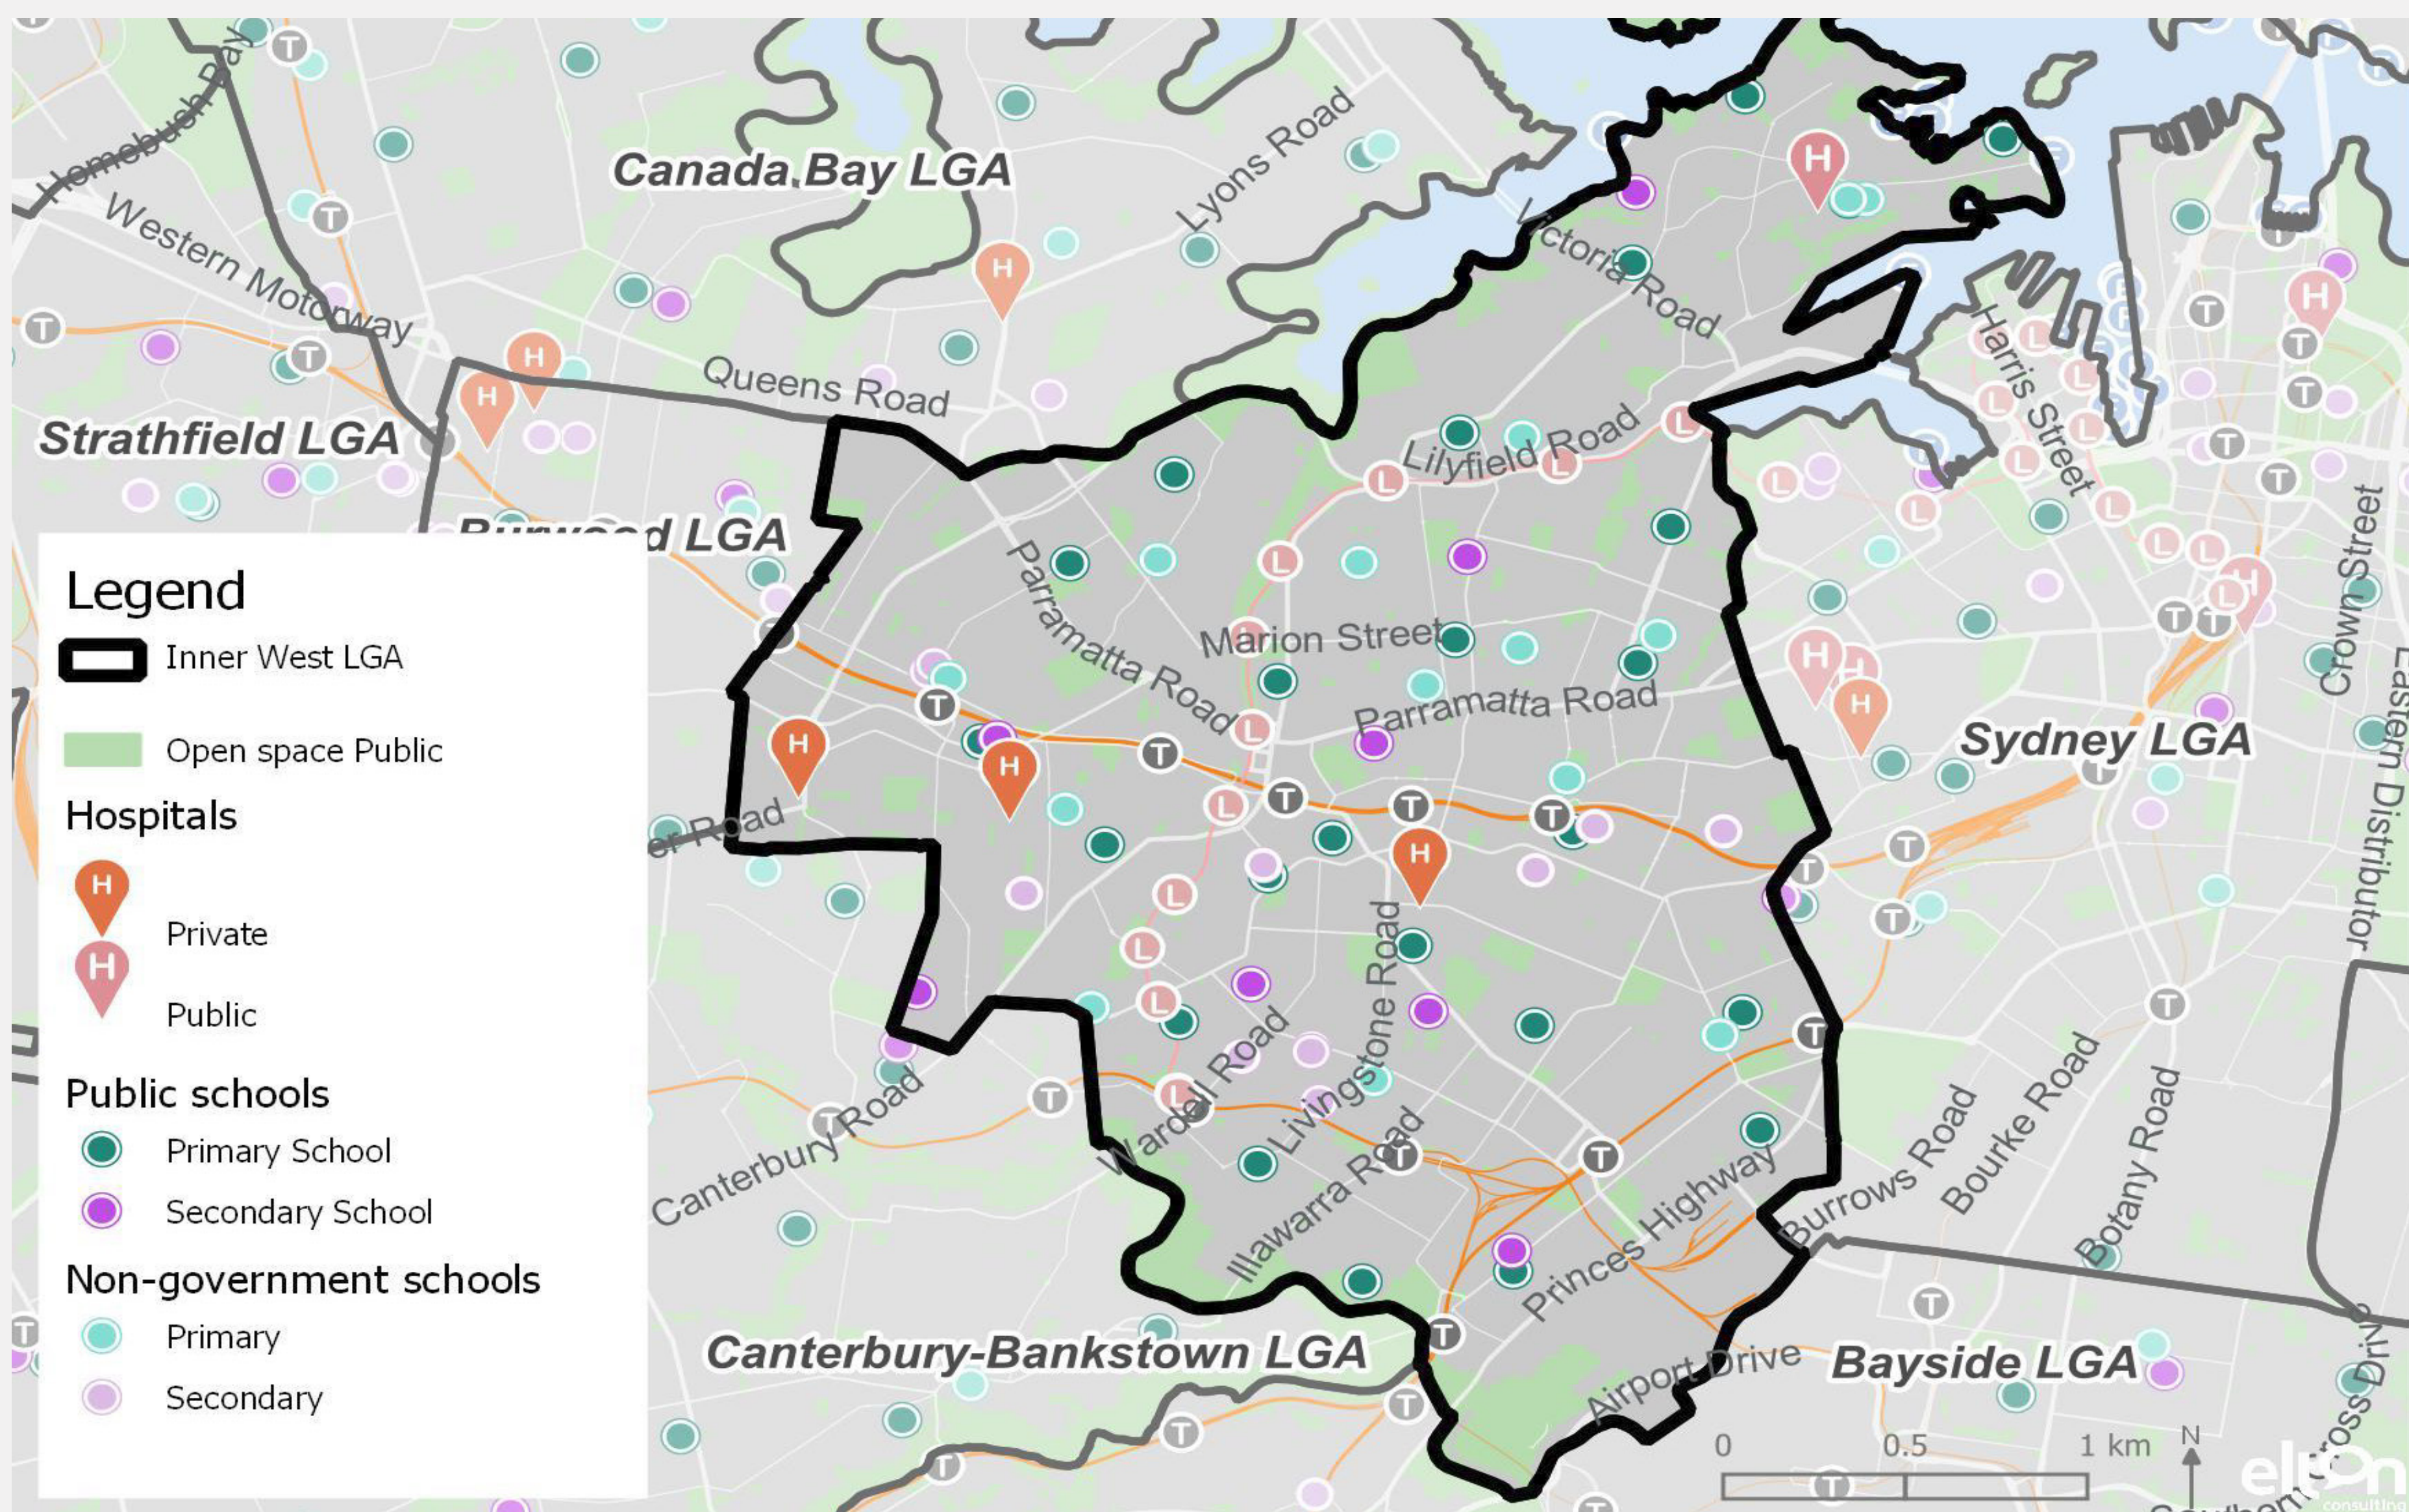

Heritage Conservation map

Zoning not suitable

Areas that are more suitable for building new housing are close to key town centres and/or along train and light rail lines.

Map Hospitals schools open space