Background Information

- The former Wesleyan Chapel built 1855-1856;
- The chapel was officially completed on January 7 1856 and was opened by the Rev. Walter Laurie, of Parramatta on the 17th of January;
- A provisional school (Tempe Public School) was held in the chapel in 1872; and
- Tempe Public School opened in 1874 and remained open for three years.

Modifications

- The chapel was converted to a residence prior to 1907. The most recent recorded Development Approval in 2014 was a DA approval dated 2004, which involved the following work: “demolish part of the premises and erect ground floor additions, detached store and covered pergola and erect new front fence”; and
- Windows to the northern side, including window openings, have been altered, and cement render stripped off the northern side wall and the front wall of the building.

Statement of Significance

- It shows the simplicity of mid-19th century “non conformist” places of worship.
- The building is of local aesthetic significance as a simple Victorian Georgian style building
- The building is representative of mid-19th century Methodist chapels.

Management Recommendations

- A Heritage Impact Statement is required by Council to accompany any Development Application for non-minor work;
- Further subdivision of the land is discouraged;
- The overall form of the building, period materials and finishes should be retained and conserved”.
