Background Information

- Former Commonwealth Bank built in 1939.
- The building is representative of an inter-war Functionalist style building.

Modifications

- Modifications have been nominal

Statement of Significance

- The Former Commonwealth Bank is of local historical significance as evidence of services formerly provided by government and since privatized, illustrating the wider role of government in the early 20th century;
- The building is designed by Commonwealth (federal) government architects, and illustrative of the Commonwealth Bank “house styles” of the 1930s; and
- The former bank building appears very intact externally.

Management Recommendations

- A Heritage Impact Statement is required by Council to accompany any Development Application for non-minor work;
- Further subdivision of the land is discouraged;
- The overall form of the building should be retained and conserved and new uses should be restricted to those that are historically consistent and/or able to be accommodated within the existing fabric with minimal physical impact;
- All significant exterior fabric should be retained and conserved;
- The setting of the property should be protected from the impacts of development and significant plantings, original front fences, paths and other landscape elements should be retained in a manner that will not threaten the viability of significant gardens; and
- The external surfaces and materials of significant facades (generally, but not limited to, those visible from the street or a public place) should be retained, and painted surfaces painted in appropriate colours.
